

ARCHITECTURE AND THE UNCONSCIOUS

LONDON BOOK LAUNCH

FRIDAY 09 DECEMBER 2016, 5-8PM
ROOM G01 CENTRAL HOUSE, UPPER
WOBURN PLACE, THE BARTLETT, UCL

An evening of discussion exploring the discourses between Architecture and Psychoanalysis, and to celebrate the publication of Architecture and the Unconscious (Routledge, 2016) edited by John Hendrix and Lorens Holm

Including presentations by

Emma Cheatle, University of Newcastle
John Hendrix, Roger Williams University, Rhode Island
Lorens Holm, University of Dundee
Tim Martin, Ravensbourne
Jane Rendell, The Bartlett School of Architecture, UCL

And responses from

David Bell, Past President British Psychoanalytic Society; and Consultant Psychiatrist, The Tavistock Clinic.
Lesley Caldwell, Psychoanalyst BPA, and Honorary Professor UCL Psychoanalysis Unit
Patrick Lynch, Lynch Architects London, and University of Liverpool

Followed by open discussion with the audience

Hosted by Lorens Holm, University of Dundee and Jane Rendell, The Bartlett School of Architecture, UCL

The event is free and open to the public.
No booking required.

Photograph by Stephen Kite.

Contributors to Architecture and the Unconscious are

Andrew Ballantyne, Kati Blom, Hugh Campbell, Emma Cheatle, Gordana Fontana-Giusti, John Hendrix, Lorens Holm, Stephen Kite, Christina Malathouni, Tim Martin, Francesco Proto, Jane Rendell, Nikos Sideris, Alla Vronskaya